

SHIRA'S BIO

Shira Yaacobi is an artist in her heart and soul. She is a singer-songwriter who has a unique style which is a blend of pop, soul and rock music. Shira's sensitive, soft yet deep and powerful voice leaves a strong signature on every song. So far, Shira released 4 singles: "Human", "Keren or" (sun light), "onot" (seasons), "oshe li tov" (makes me feel good). She also have musical duo for special events called "Sensation"

She was born in Jerusalem . Ever since she was little, she had true passion for the arts and loved singing, dancing and painting. When she was 4 years old, she started playing the piano. she learned for a few years in the conservatory and stopped. She loved the piano but her true passion was for singing. Because of her shy character only when she got older, during her bachelor's degree studies in multidisciplinary design, she started learning professional singing and started to compose. She got back to the piano and fell in love with composing. Shira is also a mother of 3 little kids.